Is Injured As Rain Causes Car To Skid

Crashing into a light pole as the result of slippery road, due to the heavy downpour, an automobile operated by Edwin L. Stevenson, of 88 High Halt rd., was considerably damaged yesterday.

The accident happened in front of 1471 Massachusetts ave. The auto was so badly damaged it had to be towed away. Stevenson received cuts about the head and right leg. He was treated by Dr. Sanger. Yesterday's rainstorm caused several other minor auto accidents and washouts in several streets here.

Charles Fields Laid At Rest

The funeral of Charles A. Fields, who died at his home, 39 Hilton st., last Sunday was held today with burial in Mt. Pleasant cemetery. Mr. Fields was 55 years old and had lived in this town 11 years. He was born in Montreal of Alfred and Eugenie (Payette) Deschamps. He was the husband of Catherine T. Fields.

Tower Mothers Hear Second Lecture of Series

The second lecture in a series presented by Dr. Helen McGillicuddy was given at a meeting of the Tower Mothers' club last Monday evening. The members met at the home of Mrs. Keith Fulton, 19 Hawthorne ave. Dr. McGillicuddy spoke on "Social Hygiene for the Young Child." The next lecture will be presented next Monday.

WEATHER

Today fair and colder, diminishing winds; tomorrow fair and warmer, with colder at night.

TWO LOCAL MEN ELECTED OFFICERS OF SCOUT COUNCIL

Candidates To Appear At Non-Partisan Affair

William C. Adams, president of the Arlington Heights Tower association has sent invitations to the various candidates for office in the March election to appear at a non-partisan political meeting to be held in the Brackett School, on Eastern ave., Tuesday evening, February 27.

All candidates have been urged to attend and present their platform to the people present.

Funeral Of Old Resident Is Held Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Louise (Blake) Russell, late of 28 Russell st., one of the oldest residents of this town were held in the Saville Funeral Home this afternoon. Rev. John Nicol Mark, pastor of the First Unitarian Church officiated. Burial was in the family lot in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Mrs. Russell died at her home last Sunday at the age of ninety-five. She was a resident of Arlington for the past seventy-five years, fifty-five of which she lived at 28 Russell st. She was the widow of Francis Fessenden Russell who died in 1916. Mrs. Russell was born in Flushing, New York of Ira and Annie (Polley) Blake.

Surviving Mrs. Russell are a son, George O. Russell, of this town; a daughter, Mrs. Isabelle Russell Lull, of Attleboro; six grandchildren, three of who are sons of the late Mrs. Louise Russell Greenleaf who died several years ago and eight great grandchildren. A grandson George R. Greenleaf, made his home with his grandmother ever since childhood.

Will Build $8,000 House

A permit was issued by William Mason, inspector of buildings yesterday, to James Caccavola, of 120 Broadway to build a single-family house at 22 Venner rd. The cost of the dwelling will be $8,000.

Falla Funeral Here Thursday

The funeral of George Falla, who died in Boston last Sunday will be held tomorrow afternoon with services in the Saville Funeral Home. Rev. John Nicol Mark of the First Parish Church will officiate and burial will be in Riverside cemetery, Saugus.

Mr. Falla was seventy-three years old. He was the brother of Mrs. Frank Tisdale, mother of Mrs. Herbert W. Bolser, of 119 Warren st., Arlington.

Mrs. Gladys LeBlanc of Arlington is at the Barbizon Plaza Hotel in New York City.

Other Arlington Men Receive Scoutmaster's Key At Meeting of Sachem Council In Concord—Dr. Huber W. Hurt, National Director of Research, Boy Scouts of America Addresses Group—George W. Butters of Lexington Is New President of Council—Progress of Past Year Is Reported

George B. C. Rugg, of this town, who has been active in the affairs of Sachem Council Boy Scouts of America has been elected vice-president of the Council. Charles M. Ward, also of Arlington, was also honored by being elected treasurer of the Council. Other officers of the Council elected at the annual meeting held in Concord Monday evening are:

George M. Dimond, Bedford, vice-president; John J. Vantura, Belmont, scout commissioner; Burleigh L. Pratt, West Concord, and George A. Hill, Concord, delegates to National Council.

Several Arlington men were honored when they received scoutmasters' keys. The keys were presented to Peter J. Jerardi, scoutmaster of Troop 5, Arlington, and Kelsey G. Reed, Lexington. L. J. Dudley of Belmont, chairman of the personnel committee, presented training course certificates to Peter J. Jerardi, Arlington; Kenneth A. Morrison, Waltham; Malvern Tasker, Waltham; Harold D. Pugsley, Waltham; Stanley Wharton, Arlington; J. A. Porter, Waltham; Richard H. Bird, Waltham; William T. Anderson Jr., Arlington; Richard W. Howe, Arlington; Frederick MacMillen, Lexington; Chester Doe, Lexington; William Condon, Bedford; Dudley H. Chute, Arlington; Raymond Fowler, Arlington, and Benjamin J. Hill, Lexington.

Scout Commissioner John J. Vantura reported that 468 boys became Scouts this year, or 37 percent of the 12-year-old population; that the goal for the council in the 10-year program is 700 new Scouts a year, or 56 percent of the 12-year-old population. He said that to achieve the goal, the number of troops must be increased from the 43 at present to 81.

This past year 102 boys completed four years of Scout service.

The goal is to have 400 boys achieve four years of Scout service.

George W. Butters of 78 Highland ave., Lexington was elected president of the Council. He succeeds Bartlett T. Miller, late of Belmont, who declined reelection as he has moved outside the territory of the council now living in Hingham.

The council had as special guest, Dr. Huber W. Hurt, national director of research, Boy Scouts of America, who is distinguished not only in scouting, but as an author and a former college president. He gave a forceful address on "Cubbing," the official program of the Boy Scouts for boys from 9 to 11 years, and the old boys' program.

Several awards were made during the evening, but outstanding was the presentation of a silver beaver to Robert P. Trask, chairman of the Lexington Board of Selectmen, by Mr. Miller, the retiring president. This is an award for volunteer scouts who render service of exceptional character to the boyhood of their community. It is an award of the National Council, Boy Scouts, and is given only upon approval of a nomination made for the award by the local Boy Scout Council. As evidence of the award, Mr. Trask received a certificate and a miniature silver beaver suspended by a ribbon, to be around the neck.

Dr. Hurt told of the change in boy conditions and the fact that they have forced parents to face a new responsibility in preparing young people for the unknown. He brought out how the Scout program can render service toward this end by giving boys more experience at an earlier period in their existence. In this connection, he added, the Scout movement has started the Cub program in reaching earlier into boy life.

B. U. PINS ITS HOPES ON JOHNNY LAX FOR GAME WITH HARVARD SATURDAY

Arlington hockey followers will turn their attention to Johnny Lax next Saturday night when he is scheduled to return to the Boston University hockey team when it meets the Harvard sextet at the Boston Arena.

Coach Wayland Vaughan of the B. U. Hockey team, a brother of Dick Vaughan, one of Yale's coaches, is in high hopes of reversing the outcome of the first clash with Harvard wherein the Crimson won out, 4 to 3, after a hard fought struggle.

Much of B. U.'s chances depend on Johnny Lax's condition. The former Arlington high ice star suffered a chipped elbow in the Harvard game on Jan. 10 and since then has been on the sidelines.

It is doubtful whether he will be able to play for another week or two. His loss will be a damaging blow. Lax and Paul Rowe, two of the Terrier's forward line along with Herman Nickerson, goalie, played together throughout their high school days at Arlington and are now in their third year of B. U. hockey, a fact which is largely responsible for their teamwork and B. U.'s success to date.

No lesser authority than Frank Frederickson, Princeton coach and former Bruins' star, recently picked Lax as one of the outstanding college hockey players of the East which tends to give some idea of what his loss will mean against the Crimson.

Although B. U. has met with difficulty in gaining the victory column, its team has been a real threat in every game.

It lost its opener to Tech, 1-0; then held Yale scoreless for 50 minutes, only to lose out 3-2; was finally beaten out by Princeton, 5-4.

In Love Suit

Whether or not she has that amount of money, Miss Ruth de Camp (above) of Mount Holly, N. J., is defendant in a $50,000 suit brought by Mrs. Helen Williams, who charges alienation of her estranged husband's affections. Miss de Camp, who is 18, inherited $25,000 from her grandmother two years ago.

Town Must Pay $22,770 For Hospital

The Town of Arlington will be required to pay $22,770.54 as its share toward the care, treatment, maintenance and repairs to the Middlesex County Tuberculosis hospital in Waltham for the year 1933, according to official notification received by the board of selectmen.

This sum will be voted by the town meeting members at the annual Town meeting next March. The amount to be appropriated is somewhat less than for the year 1932 when $24,427.77 had to be paid toward the upkeep of the hospital.

Will Discuss Child Welfare At Conference

The Social Development of the adolescent is the subject to be taken up at the second meeting of the Child Guidance school for local leaders, at the Council Chamber, City Hall, Woburn, today. Mrs. Ruth D. Morley, specialist in child guidance from the Massachusetts State College, will conduct the discussion.

Does your son resent being asked questions about where he is going, what he is going to do, and when he is coming back?

In what activities do the children in your community spend most of their time?

Do you as a parent interfere with, or aid in the satisfactory adjustment of your child with the group?

These and many other questions will be taken up at the discussion on Social Development.

Other subjects for discussion in the following meetings are the conflicts of the adolescent, indoor and outdoor recreation and the choice of suitable vocations.

If there is a group in your community interested in enrolling for this course, select two leaders to attend the leader school in Woburn on January 24.

For further information write to the Middlesex County Extension Service, Concord.

Grace T. Larson's Highlights

NOT ONLY TRANSIENT New York is but natives as well are ever searching for eating places where the food is good and as much like home-cooking as restaurant food could be. I was told of such a place on West 45th Street near Fifth Avenue and decided to try it. I was glad I did, not only for the good food but also because of an amusing happening I witnessed, one of those unexpected events that give New York its zip and zest.

A man who could find no place on the lower floor, started upstairs and just as he neared the top, stubbed his toe on the stairway and fell. Above the din and buzz of conversation came the clash-bang of his trayful of good food! Potatoes flew here, carrots there, bread under a table, pie over in the corner, and coffee all over the place! I couldn't help but feel glad it wasn't a woman in such a predicament. And how that man relieved his feelings! Well, what he said couldn't be printed—but it was plenty!

There was no disorderly running about to see what had happened, however, and after the crash came an unseemly silence, a sort of "calm after the storm" effect.

EVERY RADIO PROGRAM

lately seems to be sponsored by an advertiser who is giving something away. According to the announcers, all one has to do is send one or two package tops of the product to the manufacturer and in return he will receive the gift. I've heard it so much that if there isn't a stop to it soon, I'll be going around reciting "Tops—tops—tops" a la Rudyard Kipling's "Boots".

THE PUBLIC LIBRARIES

have felt the effect of idle days and long evenings, and work hard to satisfy the book-conscious public. The reading of fiction grows constantly regardless of whether there is more or less leisure, but other kinds of reading are becoming more pronounced as readers are delving into volumes on economics, sociology, philosophy, art, and science. The reading of a borrowed book means a hurrying through with no time for study. More spare time may encourage readers to purchase books, to build their own libraries for reading at a leisurely pace.

The librarians answer any and all questions as best they can. Numbers of people seek advice from librarians. People go to libraries to learn how to sharpen a razor and how to eradicate apple rust from orchards. That sounds absurd, I know, but the questioning people of New York ask questions just as, and sometimes more, ludicrous. With more time in which to be curious, just think of the questions that may occur to them! There may be a shortage of books but there will be no shortage of information seekers.

Hook Griffin Is "Bad Man" Of League

As a result of receiving a total of eight minutes in the penalty box at the hands of Referee Victor Duplin when Medford High played Melrose at the Garden Saturday, Hook Griffin, star Blue and White defenseman becomes, temporarily, the "bad man" of the Greater Boston Interscholastic League. Griffin has a total of 12 minutes in penalties, two more than Bill Anderson of Cambridge Latin.

Until Friday night, at least, the Medford boy will hold the "convict" or "criminal" part, at which time the eight teams swing into action again. A year ago, the night entertainment drew a throng of 10,000 spectators. It is advanced from Saturday afternoon to Friday night because of the track meet at the Garden on Saturday.

County Extension Service Announces New Lecture Series

Have you a tea room, or wayside stand that does not pay? Have you ever stopped to consider why? Mrs. Harriett J. Haynes, home management Specialist from the Massachusetts State College, will discuss ways in which you can improve your business methods.

Sanitation, cleanliness, furnishing and equipment, buying and serving foods, menu planning, prices and other topics of interest will be taken up.

The meetings which last from 10:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m., will be held in Concord at the Extension Service Office on February 8, March 1, Wayside Stands, February 9, March 2, Tea Rooms.

The meetings are open to the public, and are free of charge. They should be of especial interest to people who are now operating a wayside stand or tea room.

URGES INSURANCE ON UNEMPLOYMENT

WASHINGTON — Unemployment insurance and old-age pensions were strongly urged by Secretary Perkins of the Labor Department. In her annual report Miss Perkins recommended that States set up some form of insurance in an effort to prevent future suffering from unemployment and old-age pensions to remove aged men and women from competition for jobs. She also recommended full use of the Government employment service by workers and employers; planning of production by factories to stabilize employment; provision for proper low cost housing; greater efforts to secure safety for workers in industry; and greater cooperation between State and Federal labor departments.

It seems that Max Baer is not the only dispenser of fisticuffs to "go Hollywood." Here is Carl Brisson, native of Denmark, who fought 72 ring battles before he decided to become an actor. He is well known on the English stage and screen and has the distinction of having once punched the Crown Prince of Germany, whom he taught boxing.

EARLEY TO START

Hon. James A. Farley, postmaster-general of the United States is expected to be in Boston on Saturday. He has been invited to fire the starting gun at the K of C. meet at the Garden that evening for the Curley Mile, which has such stars entered as Gene Venske, Joe Mangano, Frank Crowley, Russell Jellison, Frank McKenna, Tom McKenough, Bay Estes and Mundys.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Spanish Veal Balls
2 cups ground cooked veal
1-4 cup chopped cooked salt pork
1 cup soda crackers rolled fine
salt and pepper
1 egg beaten
3 cups tomato sauce (seasoned with minced onion, chopped green pepper and salt and pepper)

Mix meat, crackers, seasoning and egg. Shape into 12 balls and brown quickly in a small amount of fat. Pour well seasoned tomato sauce over meat balls, cover and simmer for 40 minutes. Serve hot with sauce over meat. Six portions.

A ten or twelve-inch round pie or cake pan is convenient to hold spices and flavoring bottles in the kitchen closet. Place the tall bottle in the center. Another round pan in the refrigerator will hold an open jar of mayonnaise, chili sauce, olives, jelly or preserves. A turn of the pan brings any one of them within easy reach.

"Spread Sunshine and Safety"

Daddy Sunshine Club Rules

1. Be kind and helpful to others.
2. Look both ways when crossing streets.
3. Always be kind to dumb animals.
4. Write a letter to Daddy Sunshine, or have Mother or Dad write it for you, every now and then.
5. Try to bring a "Ray of Sunshine" into the lives of your parents and others every day of the week and every week of the year.

These rules are not very difficult for good girls and boys to keep. Most of them are kept by them anyway.

Mail your letters and stories to Daddy Sunshine in care of this paper. He will answer them in the Daddy Sunshine column.

Write on but one side of the paper, and place your age and address on the letter after your name. Give the day, month and year of your birth.

To join the club all you have to do is promise to keep the rules—and keep them.

WARNS MEMBERS OF DANGERS OF HOCKEY

Dear Daddy Sunshine:

It's been a long time since I have written a letter to you, and after seeing all the letters that Amanda Black has written, I feel ashamed. I think that it would be good this time of the year to suggest that the members review the rules of the club.

Probably the most important rule is "Spread Sunshine and Safety." All the members know about the sunshine and practice it every day. At this time, skating is the most common winter sport. The smaller members of the club will do well to use a small part of the ice and keep away from the older fellows who may be playing hockey.

When a boy gets interested in the game to a great degree, he may disregard the younger children who may also be skating in the vicinity. Perhaps in his effort to put his team in the lead, he may accidentally collide with one of the children. It is best to keep away from a hockey game and in this way live up to the safety rule of the club.

All boys and girls in the club know the danger of skating on thin ice. The weather we have had in the past few days makes the ice fairly thick, but as the days grow warmer with the summer approaching, the ice will gradually melt and become unsafe. This is the time that members of the club should live up to the rules.

In this city in late years, since the founding of this club, there have been few deaths of children due to automobiles. It is generally found that when such an unfortunate incident occurs, the victim is not a member of the club.

I hope that members of the club may find time to read over these few suggestions and warnings and live up to them as all faithful members of the club would. I hope that I will find time soon to write another letter.

Your old member,

John (Buddy) Nelson

As usual John, you have something truly worthwhile to say in your letter. Your warnings to the members at this time are very timely. Several Arlington children landed in the hospital over the weekend from an accident which you remind the Sunshiners might happen. Hockey is an exciting game and when boys play it—larger boys—they become so interested in it that they neglect to see the younger boys playing nearby. Naturally one is bound to get hurt when the youngsters skate near where a hockey game is in session. Let's hope all who read your letter will avoid playing where older boys are skating, and thereby lessen the occasions of accidents. Hope, John, to hear from you regularly now.

HAS TWO CATS

Dear Daddy Sunshine:

I am sending you a letter hoping I will win a ticket to the theatre.

I have two cats, one is gray and white and the other one is all gray, and is a most nine years old.

I am using all your rules and I am glad I can follow them all. I look both ways before I cross the street and if I see a smaller child, I help them across too.

I will close my letter now.

Jeanette Donath,

AMERICAN RAILROADS ALWAYS PROGRESSIVE

Railroad progress is never ending. The search for better and more comfortable equipment, for faster and safer trains, for efficient and dependable devices of all kinds, never stops. "Keep on improving" is the watchword of the American railroad.

The public doesn't hear much of the developments. It doesn't see them until they are put into operation—even then, in the case of technical equipment, it may never know they exist. The work goes on quietly, in laboratories, over blue-prints, in the offices of engineers and inventors and scientists.

The railroads at present are pushing research on 70 subjects pertaining to locomotives, 65 to freight cars, 38 to passenger cars, 67 to engineering, 15 to signals, and so on. As fast as one improvement is perfected, others will be underway. So long as executives have visions of progress, and the scientific mind is eager to grapple with new theories, railroad development will go on.

Anyone who remembers the railroads of forty years ago will have a pretty good idea of what work in laboratories has done for the traveling and shipping public. It has made particularly astonishing strides in improving safety apparatus—serious railroad accidents are almost unknown on American lines. It is now ready to give us streamlined trains which will be models of speed, comfort and convenience. All praise to the railroad engineers and managements who have made this work possible!

DON'T LET TAXATION BECOME CONFISCATION

An unbiased survey of the governmental achievements of 1933 produces much that is praiseworthy and deserving of the highest respect. Aggressive and daring efforts to bring recovery have been made. In spite of the critical tax situation new jobs have been created and payrolls have increased. Factories are operating again that have been closed for years.

It is probable that the worst phase of the year, so far as industry, property-owners, investors and taxpayers are concerned, is the increase in the public debt—federal, state and local.

A number of political subdivisions have endeavored to "spend themselves into prosperity"—something which can't be done.

The national credit has been maintained—but bonds of a multitude of towns and counties and cities have been thrown onto the bargain counter.

Public officials could adopt no better motto for the new year than "Economy and Efficiency are Essential to Recovery." Nothing would do more to accelerate an upward trend in business than a public policy to keep taxes down, thus relieving the burning fear that in the near future, taxation and confiscation will become one and the same thing.

Laughing Around the World

With IRVIN S. COBB

A Lover of Statistics

By IRVIN S. COBB

THERE was a seance on. The medium's husband, who acted, so to speak, as ringmaster, desired to know whether there was anyone present desirous of having speech with some dear departed one. If so, Madame would undertake to establish liaison.

This was the cue for the yokel. He mustered courage to stutter an embarrassed plea. He wished to have speech with the shade of his late father.

After a proper wait there were sounds in the cabinet and through the darkness there spoke the tones of one of seeming hoary age.

"Is that you, my son?" asked the voice.

"Yes, paw, this here is me," answered the youth.

"Was there any questions you wished to ask me concernin' my present state?"

The boy thought a moment. Then:

"Air you an angel, Paw?"

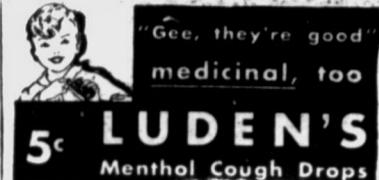

"Oh, yes, my son."

"An angel with wings and a harp and everything?"

The son considered a moment. Then he had an inspiration.

"Say, Paw," he demanded sagely, "what do you measure from tip to tip?"

No city will ever fully represent either the best or the worst of its citizens, but there is a general average which will always make its influence felt. Raising the standard of this general average will bring good results.

Working on borrowed money is a perfectly sound and legitimate practice in business, and for nations and individuals to pledge future revenues and incomes in order to receive immediate benefits is a system which can easily be justified so long as it is not carried too far. But there lurks behind this arrangement a hidden danger. This danger is the possibility of a fall in prices and revenue, which may make it impossible for debtors to meet their debts when they fall due. And then what?

The selling public should place every inducement they have before the buying public, through newspaper advertising, and the buying public should show their loyalty to the home city by buying at home.

If you would like to know what wonderful effects the sun, a light wind and a bank or so of clouds can conjure, you should be out in the country at dawn when the sun is just getting up. Unfortunately, few city folks are up that early. If they are, it is by accident.

If some people spent half the time spreading information of the good things about the home city that they spend in spreading gossip, it would be a much better and busier city.

Courtesy is a quality which should be cultivated by every citizen.

LAST STORY OF RING LARDNER SR. IN NEW ISSUE OF ESQUIRE

Esquire, who published the first article written by Ring Lardner Jr., in its debut issue, has in its February number the last story by his illustrious father, the late Ring Lardner Sr. The manuscript arrived on the day of the great humorist's death and written in a typical Lardner vein, recounts a riotous tale of a grudge match between two wrestlers. The title is "Greek Tragedy."

Other humorists in the current issue include Thorne Smith, author of "Rain in the Doorway," "Night Life of the Gods," and other best sellers, who writes of an hilarious fox hunt in Texas. Montague Glass bemoans the American art of "heel cooling," in outer offices of business and professional moguls, while Ray Knight (who by the way was recipient of one of the two bouquets handed out by Gilbert Seldes in his bitter survey of radio in the January issue of Esquire) parodies titled tell-all autobiographers in "Tsar and Feathers."

Of a decidedly more serious nature is "Two Opposing Views of Germany" in which Richard Von Kuhlmann, German baron and former minister of foreign affairs, and Lion Feuchtwanger, author of Hitler bonfire-banned books, take sides in debate on Hitler, war and the world markets, on two opposing pages.

Ernest Hemingway, aggressive and turbulent in the past, suddenly turns pacifist in "Paris letter," a note from that gay center on American remembrances, European boxers, war and wine.

 The nine members of the U. S. Supreme Court, which shortly will be called upon for its decision in the New York Milk Control suit, verdict on which will determine constitutionality of NRA and AAA price-fixing. They are divided into three groups. Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, 72-year-old dean of the group, and Justice Owen D. Roberts, 59, are Moderates. They backed Government in Minnesota mortgage moratorium case. Justice Louis D. Brandeis, 78; Justice Harlan F. Stone, 62, and Justice Benjamin N. Cardozo, 64, are considered Liberals, expected to string along with Moderates. Four listed as Conservatives are Justice Willis Van Devanter, 75; Justice George Sutherland, 72; Justice James Clark McReynolds, 72, and Justice Pierce Butler, 68. The court must decide whether or not Leo Nebbia, of Rochester, N. Y., acted within constitutional rights when he circumvented price-fixing of New York Milk Control Board by giving away a 5-cent loaf of bread with two-quart purchase of milk. Verdict for Nebbia would strike at roots of Recovery program.

KIDNAPPING LAW PASSES SENATE

BOSTON—Under suspension of the rules the Massachusetts Senate yesterday afternoon gave two readings and passed to be engrossed a bill to make kidnapping for ransom punishable by life imprisonment in this State. The measure previously had been passed in the House and now needs only to be enacted before being sent to Governor Ely for his approval. The bill was introduced by Representative Thos. A. Delmore of Lowell.

CATHOLIC BOARD ISSUED CURES FOR HEADACHES

NEW YORK—Medicines sufficient to cure 1,000,000 headaches and 500,000 colds and fevers have been distributed by the Catholic Medical Mission Board during the last five years. Its president, Rev. Edward F. Garesche, announced. Also, enough surgical instruments for 2,500,000 operations for appendicitis and 23,445,000 other ailments requiring surgery were sent out, Dr. Garesche said. The supplies were distributed among 876 missions scattered throughout the world.

RESERVE BANKS BACK HUGE FINANCE PLAN

WASHINGTON—Governor Eugene Black said yesterday governors of the twelve Federal Reserve banks had given "assurance of full co-operation" in the Government's huge financing program.

Black's statement to the press said: "A conference of the Governors of the reserve banks was held on Saturday. At this conference Secretary Morganthau presented the immediate program of the Government's financing. The governors gave full consideration to this program and assurance of full co-operation in the success of the program was given by the governors."

Black did not indicate what machinery would be employed by the reserve banks in extending their aid to the sale of $10,000,000 of Government securities. Nor has Morganthau announced the first step in this borrowing program to meet recovery costs.

It was considered likely the reserve banks might resume open market purchases of Government securities if necessary.

The statement also was regarded as an effort to assure the public that difference between the reserve banks and the Administration over President Roosevelt's gold plan were not disrupting the close co-operation of the past between the Treasury and reserve banks on Government financial needs.

Treasury officials said no financing plans would be announced today. Whether the first borrowing is advertised before the dollar devaluation bill becomes law probably will depend upon the speed of Senate action.

If the measure is delayed in the Senate the Treasury is expected to proceed with an issue of Government obligations.

ONLY ONE PLEADS FOR COOLIDGE MEMORIAL

peared yesterday before the legislative committee on state administration to urge favorable action on a bill to provide a suitable state memorial for the late Calvin Coolidge.

Van Ness Bates of Brookline was the only citizen to appeal for favorable action. He paid tribute to the late president. Sen. Cornelius F. Haley of Rowley, chairman, indicated the committee would report favorably on the bill despite the lack of public interest. The bill, drawn by the State art commission, would provide establishment of a Coolidge Memorial Room in the State House.

BOURNE CAN HAVE SUMMER BALL TEAM

BOSTON—Under a suspension of rules, moved by Senator Donald W. Nicholson of Wareham, the Senate yesterday gave all readings and passed to be engrossed the bill to authorize the town of Bourne to appropriate $200 annually for the support of a summer baseball team. The Senate also voted to engross the bill to increase the penalty for kidnapping to life imprisonment.

SALEM WILL VOTE ON TAVERNS TODAY

SALEM—The question of the licensing of taverns in Salem will be decided today by popular vote. Polls will be open from 6 a. m. to 4 p. m. Local commentators are inclined to believe that the tavern will be rejected. Many package stores which have received liquor license have complained of the lack of business, and many citizens see no reason why additional places should be licensed.

ARLINGTON PEOPLE TO APPEAR IN WINCHESTER CHORAL PRESENTATION

On Tuesday evening, January 30th, the music loving folks of the Mystic Valley region will assemble in the Winchester Town Hall to listen to the offering of the Winchester Choral Society in the first concert of its fifth season. These music lovers of the territory contiguous to Winchester have come to expect much, musically, from this society. This expectation is a natural result of the society's past performances which, exceeding at its first concert the expected mediocrity of an initial performance, has, in its subsequent concerts, consistently amazed its listeners with its fidelity to pitch, its flexibility of tonal qualities and the general beauty of its renditions under the able leadership of its director, J. Albert Wilson.

Outside of its immediate neighborhood, the Winchester Choral Society is comparatively little known. It has made no bid for metropolitan recognition, although it has received offers to sing in Boston. It has been content thus far to confine its activities to two concerts in each season in Winchester, with the hope of maintaining permanently a truly community choral society of high excellence.

For Better Music

In past years, Winchester has evinced a considerable interest in music of the better grade. This is but a natural outgrowth of the individual tendencies of most of its citizens, so that this Society did not come into being, five years ago, by mere accident or through the initiative of one of two individuals. It is the result of much thought and planning by a large group of music lovers in the Mystic Valley. These music lovers had long thought that there was a real place in Winchester for a choral group which would produce music of the better grade and make it available for everyone. The success of this Society is a testimony to this vision, and is an evidence of the acceptance of such an ideal by the communities of Winchester and surrounding towns.

J. Albert Wilson, the director, has been the big factor in the musical success of the Society.

He has an enviable reputation as a church organist and choir director. A Harvard man, with an excellent musical background, he was for more than 20 years organist and choir master of the Church of the Epiphany of Winchester, developing his choristers into one of the finest groups around Boston. He is now organist and choir master of the First Congregational Church, and is also acting as the director of the chorus of the Fortnightly Woman's Club of Winchester, and of Winchester High School Chorus. He is noted as an organist and has a wide reputation as a vocal teacher, besides composing several scores, one of which was played by the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Local People In Society

The Society is composed of active membership of one hundred singers recruited by invitation from residents of Winchester, Woburn, Arlington, Stoneham, Medford, Melrose, Malden and Somerville, thus making a truly community society. To say that the chorus is equal to metropolitan choruses of long standing is to state mildly the scope of its proven ability.

The past performances of the Society have been noteworthy and such difficult chorus scores as Brahms' "Song of Destiny", Schubert's "Miriam's Song of Triumph", Elgar's "Banner of St. George", Schubert's "Great is Jehovah", Gounod's "Kermess Scene" from "Faust," and Borodin's "Polovetzian Dance and Chorus" from the Opera "Prince Igor," and have rendered with such ability as to call forth the most complimentary comments from recognized musical critics.

In its past concerts, the Society has had as guest artist Walter Kidder, Marjorie Moody, George Boynton, John Percival, Mae Murray, Alden Edkins, and Gertrude Erhard.

For its concert on January 30th, it has been fortunate in securing Coleman Sargent, former operatic tenor at Milan and Munich, who has recently returned to this country, filling an engagement with the American Opera Company. In addition to singing a group of solo numbers, Mr. Sargent will appear with the Society in the presentation of Reinecke's beautiful "Evening Hymn."

The forthcoming concert will include the following interesting program by the entire chorus:

"O Gladsome Light"—from "The Golden Legend" by Sullivan.

"Liberty"—A Song of Ancient Rome—Suggested by Macaulay's "Virginia" by Fanning.

"Send Out Thy Spirit"—by Schuetky.

"London Town"—by German. "Music, when soft voices die"—by Bantock.

"Evening Hymn"—by Reinecke.

"Regina Coeli"—from "Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni.

"Crossing the Bar" by Barnby.

The Society's men's chorus will sing:

"Hunting Song"—from "King Arthur" by Bullard.

"Lamp in the West"—by Parker.

"Soldiers Chorus"—from "Faust" by Gounod.

The success of the Society has been enhanced by the wonderful abilities of the two accompanists, Mary H. French and Mary R. Witham. Both have given genously of their time and musical talent in supporting the musical directing of Mr. Wilson.

The interest in the coming concert of Jan. 30th, is widespread, and it is apparent that a crowded Winchester Town Hall will listen with rapt attention to the latest offering of the Society. Arlington members include: Le Roy Bezancon, Letitia G. Doble, Eva G. Mellen, Grace B. Mitchell, LD MOTHER HUBBARD found her cupboard bare, but that isn't true of New England women if the experience of one large grocer in Boston is any guide.

This grocer reports that his customers purchased 30,000 more grocery articles last month than during the same month a year ago.

That means more orders for the factories, more wheels turning, more farm products consumed, more jobs. All of which lead to better times.

The perfect housekeeper has a well-stocked pantry shelf. Canned goods for example. The new packs are in, and many emergency shelf foods—always available in your home.

It's no longer clever to boast of having so little—money or things about the house. There's a surge of pride in the modern woman as she shows her well-stocked pantry—her new breakfast set—her new refrigerator—her newly painted bathroom, etc.

Heavy construction is being maintained at a high level by continual activity in the award of road contracts says Engineering News Record, and in the week ended November 20 the value of heavy contracts was $37,190,000, the second highest weekly total this year.

Bank clearings in leading American cities for the week ended November 22 showed an increase of 22.5 per cent over the same period of last year.

Wholesale prices during the week ended November 18 reacted a new high and were at the best level since August, 1931, according to the U. S. Commissioner of Labor Statistics.

Reports from more than 1500 J. C. Penney Co. stores for the first 10 days of November show that the company has enjoyed one of the greatest period increases in business of the year, volume continuing substantially ahead of last year, it was stated by Carl C. Hins, president of the company.

Three greater Boston firms have been awarded contracts for 755,000 yards of flannel shirting for the quartermaster's department of the U. S. Army.

Dollar sales of Continental Can Co. in the 4th quarter up to November 10 were 30% greater than in the same period last year.
